

Film TV and Production

- QUESTION 1 What is the key difference between feature films and short films
- Option A Feature films are always silent.
- Option B Feature films have longer running times.
- Option C Short films have more complex plots.
- Option D Short films are always animated.
-
- QUESTION 2 Which of the following elements is typically included in a script's formatting?
- Option A Music composition
- Option B Camera angles
- Option C Stage directions
- Option D Editing techniques
-
- QUESTION 3 What is the role of a music director in filmmaking?
- Option A Overseeing the post-production editing
- Option B Managing the film's marketing and distribution
- Option C Creating and selecting music for the film
- Option D Assisting the lead actor in performance
-
- QUESTION 4 What is the primary purpose of a script in the context of filmmaking or theater?
- Option A To provide stage directions
- Option B To describe the visual effects
- Option C To serve as a blueprint for a production
- Option D To convey the director's vision
-
- QUESTION 5 What does the term "resolution" refer to in the context of computer graphics?
- Option A The size of the monitor
- Option B The number of colors in an image
- Option C The clarity and level of detail in an image
- Option D The width and height of an image in pixels